ISAIAH 9:6

St. André Bessette Parish

Parish Office Address: 11 Sparhawk Street, Amesbury, MA 01913

Hours: 9:00 AM - 3:30 PM, Monday - Thursday Closed: Friday, Saturday, Sunday & Holidays

Phone: 978.388.0330 Web: www.StAndreB.org

Welcome! We are glad you are here to join us in worship in the celebration of the Eucharist (Mass). At the Eucharist, the Church comes together to hear the Word of the Lord, to pray for the world's needs, to offer the sacrifice of the Cross in praise and thanks to God, to receive Christ Jesus in communion, and then to be sent forth in the Spirit as disciples of the Gospel. If you are not familiar with the Mass, the Order of the Mass can be found on pages 3-29 of the Breaking Bread hymnal. We call particular attention to the text of the Gloria and the Nicene Creed located on the inside cover. The scripture (Bible) readings for today's Mass can be found on page 46

God, friend of the lowly, who gave your servant, St. André Bessette a great devotion to St. Joseph and a special commitment to the poor and afflicted, help us through his intercession to follow his example of prayer and love and so come to share with him in your glory. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen

From the Desk of Fr. Ron

Just a few days ago I unpacked the family nativity set. It is a simple cardboard crèche, with figurines made of paper mâché and chalk. I remember when some of the pieces were purchased in the fifties. To say it is a humble sight would be an overstatement but, I wouldn't even consider getting a newer set. It speaks to me of the reality of that humble scene that happened in Bethlehem so long ago of our God who became one like us.

Our God is forever coming to us, seeking to share with us the depth of His love. All He asks is that we welcome him into our hearts. That simple act has the potential of changing our lives forever.

I am reminded of what Robert Louis Stevenson, the freethinker and agnostic once said:

"You can give without loving, but you can never love without giving. "

May God, who by the Incarnation brought together the earthly and heavenly realm, fill you with the gift of his peace and favor and make you sharers with the Church in heaven. Amen

May the blessings of almighty God, come down on you and remain with you forever. Amen

Merry Christmas to you and your family.

Peace, Fr. Ron

Remembering Mary at Christmas by Deacon Chuck

When I was in junior high in upstate New York, I belonged to a tiny Methodist church, and every Christmas, the church had a little pageant that told the story of the birth of Jesus. I was a shepherd. The young woman who portrayed Mary was perhaps the most beautiful young woman I had ever seen.

I remember that pageant each year at this time and each year it becomes more beautiful. And as my faith matures, I venerate our Blessed Mother more and more, and now, so many decades later, she remains a woman of timeless, eternal beauty - the one who's example teaches us to say to Our Lord what she said to the Angel: "Let it be done to me according to Your word."

How beautiful you are, Mary!

Christmas Message

by Beverley Fournier, MA, MTS, MDiv

Our Christmas gospel reading from John holds significant theological premise: "And the Word became flesh and made his dwelling among us, and we saw his glory, the glory as of the Father's only Son, full of grace and truth." (John 1:14)

I wonder if it is not a whole lot easier for us to delve into this mystery a bit more gently and bring to prayer these simple words: "... Unto us a child is born ...."

There is no question that some of us will be drawn to contemplate John's passage and attempt to uncover something deeper about this great mystery. Others of us may sit peacefully and ponder Jesus' birth in a quiet manger without any inclination to make sense of it as theological mystery.

Whatever way we are drawn to pray about the events of this day, the meaning behind the words is the same. This is the day where we are all invited to discover a deeper trust in the truth and promise of hope. Such trust is not found in complicated theological perspectives; quite instead, such trust is found in the simple ways we feel God present to us. It is not only simple, but also amazing.

How could God's presence be made more known to us when we can pray the words:

"Unto us a child is born ..."?

"And the Soul Felt Its Worth"

by Diana Giard MAPC

"Till He appears, and the soul felt its worth. A thrill of hope the weary world rejoices." The famous line in "Oh Holy Night" resonates with me each year as I contemplate Jesus' birth. Holding a newborn baby evokes an awe and wonder deep within us. We see the vulnerability, innocence, and the uncanny strength in the baby's hands. Wanting to love and protect the child all at once, we can also feel overwhelmed by a baby's presence. In an instance, we get a glimpse of God's love for us through the witness of this beautiful child. We feel the worth of our soul. God, the King of the Universe, has appeared. He came to us. He came to you to offer you eternal life. May His promise and Love give you a thrill of Hope in our weary world. Rejoice!

Remember Our Veterans This Christmas

Whether a veteran is physically in battle or just mentally, we mustn't forget the price that they've all paid. Some veterans have found salvation from their post-traumatic stress disorder however, others have not.

When you utter prayers for veterans remember that a soldier's work is never done. Even though they may not be physically on the front lines their mind and soul may still be there. All in all, it's important to pray for protection for the men and women in uniform. It's important to not forget their sacrifice.

We shouldn't categorize their prayers in representation of a holiday or celebration. Instead these prayers for our soldiers should be recited every day. Thank you for your service.
